Frank Nugent left yesterday afternoon for the Kootenai country.

Pat Casey, a well-known and highly esteemed citizen of Helena, is in the city on a pleasure trip.

Judge Eddy was taken suddenly ill Tuesday night and was unable to hold court yesterday.

The infant daughter of Reese David of South Butte died yesterday morning. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

Quite a delegation of K. of P. will leave for Great Falls next Tuesday to attend the grand lodge which convenes there.

City Treasurer Jacobs has appointed J. W. Merrell poll tax collector. The annual round up of delinquents will begin today.

A reception will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lucas in South Arizona street this evening from 5 to 11 o'clock in honor of a Helena guest.

A meeting of the Silver Bow Lodge of Elks is called for Friday evening at the office of Mantle & Warren, West Broadway. The election of charter members and officers will take place. A full attendance is requested.

The announcement of the engagement of J. A. Backstein of this city to Miss Cecilia Lerkowitz of San Francisco, which was made in Tuesday morning's STANDARD, is denied. The item was handed to the papers by some mischievous person and is stated to be without the slightest foundation.

J. A. Brent, superintendent of the Indiana Mining company, yesterday let a contract to Con Sullivan to sink a 150-foot shaft on the Sumbiling block property in Park canyon. Sinking will be commenced at once and actively pushed. The outlook for the Park Canyon mines this summer is unusually good.

THUGS AND THIEVES.

An Effort should be made to Run Them Down.

BUTTE, May 11.—The urgent need of a detective to do night duty in Butte, or the appointment of a plain-clothes officer on the night shift, was never better illustrated than now. There are more crooks in the city at present than there has been in a long time, and, with continued and uninterfered success, they are growing unusually bold and daring. The police force is not large enough to successfully cope with the rascals, and they go on in their work of going through houses and holding up people on the street with scarcely any interference. One night officer in citizen's clothes could put quite a check on these depredations and land a good many of the offenders behind the bars. There is one particular gang of crooks in the city who are all known to several members of the force, but they cannot go off their beats to follow them, and even if they did their uniforms would give them away and put the thieves on their guard. An officer in citizen's clothes without any check on his movements could get onto these fellows and follow them without arousing their suspicions, and it would only be a matter of time until he would succeed in capturing enough of them to scare the others out of the city. This is a hint which the police commission would do well to act upon.

Slept in a School House.

BUTTE, May 11.—Deputy Sheriff Rankley this morning arrested at Silver Bow junction John Magnusin, Barney Brogan, Jones McMurtre, John Hurley and Peter Mulligan for breaking into the school house at that place last night and using the place as a sleeping apartment. They were brought to the county jail. The men walked to Butte from the Coeur d'Alene country in search of work.

CAGES BEFORE THE COURTS

Trial of the Noted Townsite Suit—That Tug of War Prize Money—New Actions.

BUTTE, May 11.—Facts have very little to do in the big townsite case on trial in Judge McHatton's court. The questions with which the court, attorneys and jury are wrestling with are questions of law as to whether deeds to lots under the original townsite patent are worth the paper they are written on or not. The greater part of the day was consumed in arguing law points. The first witness this morning was W. H. Hill, deputy county treasurer. He was followed by Assessor Holland, Mr. Lyons and County Clerk Booth. The plaintiffs offered to prove by them that Casey and Warren paid taxes on the property and that it was assessed to them, but most of the testimony was ruled out under objections on the ground that it was immaterial and irrelevant. The plaintiffs attempted to show by the county clerk that the property in controversy had been assessed to the estate of L. M. Black from the organization of Silver Bow county until it passed, by purchase, into the possession of the plaintiffs, but that, too, was ruled out. George Casey was then called to the stand, and was asked to testify that he and Charles S. Warren paid the taxes on the ground last year, but he was not permitted, and his counsel took an exception to the court's ruling. The plaintiffs then rested their case, and the defense put James Larkin on the stand as their first witness. He testified that he has been in Butte since April, 1877, and located the ground in controversy in 1881 as a mineral claim. He was asked whether the ground was vacant when he located, but before he could answer counsel for plaintiffs got in an objection, claiming that the question was not proper, that it was immaterial and that the defendant had not shown that they had any right to the property. The remainder of the morning session and all of the afternoon was taken up in arguing the point raised. Attorney Scallan for the defense claimed that the plaintiffs had no right to purchase the property and were not entitled to the possession of it, and if they were entitled to it under the law, then the law is unconstitutional. The plaintiffs have never entered into possession of the ground and did not improve it, as they should have done under the law and the townsite patent. They could not take the property for speculative purposes, and the defense would show that when Larkin made the location the land was vacant and unoccupied. During the noon recess Juror McCabe took suddenly very ill and had to be taken to bed. He does not recover by morning, the case will have to be postponed, as the attorneys decline to proceed with 11 jurors.

A Game of Freeze Out.

William Thompson has filed an answer to the action brought against him by the Miner's Lumber company to freeze him out of the corporation. He alleges in his answer that the lumber company is not now and never has been the lawful owner or holder of the three notes set out in the causes of action, but says that the lumber company was organized under the laws of the state for the only purpose, as set out in the certificate of incorporation, if the company is owner of the notes it becomes such owner without authority of law and without its charter rights, and the purchase was contrary to law and public policy and without the consent of the company's charter, and in no wise connected therewith. It is further alleged that neither of the notes were taken or purchased by the company in the ordinary course of business, and has no capacity to sue upon or for the recovery of the sum or sums mentioned in the plaintiff's complaint, wherefore the defendant asks the case to be dismissed. With the answer is filed a copy of the articles of incorporation of the lumber company, and the purchase of the notes by the lumber company prior to the commencement of the attachment suit. Under the suit, Thompson's stock in the lumber company is held under attachment.

In the case of Charles P. Hough against W. N. Burton and others, to recover possession of a certain lot of ground on the Colorado lode claim and for damages in the sum of $5,000, several answers and demurrers were filed today. In the answers of J. Levi Price, Hynes Cannon and Mary Cannon, they deny that they ever squatted on or took possession of the property in controversy, and aver that they have no interest in the property and never pretended to have. T. V. Skidmore, another of the defendants, also denies any interest in the property and does not want to be made a defendant. W. S. Burton, M. Lichtenstine and Edward Wegner, the other defendants, intend to fight the case and filed separate demurrers to the complaint, alleging that it does not contain facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

John N. Pankey today filed an amended complaint in a suit against John V. Wiggin and H. J. Fine to recover $24,000 alleged to be due for work done between May 18 and Oct. 1, 1891. The case is an offshoot of the Shenhar mining collapse. Pankey was foreman of the mine, and in a recent suit between Fine and Wiggin he claimed he had been owner of that property, but failed to establish his claim. He now sues for wages as foreman and interest on the sum at 10 per cent. from Oct. 1, 1891.

An answer was filed today by Hugh Kennedy to the damage suit commenced against him by J. L. Switzer and F. L. Grisham and denies that the plaintiffs complied with the terms of the wood hauling contract, but alleges that the plaintiffs are the ones who violated the contract and consequently were not damaged in the sum of $400.

The Tug of War Case.

H. L. Frank, stake holder in the old tug of war contest, today filed an answer in the suit brought against him by Dominie Salki in behalf of the Italian team. In the first place, Frank, in his answer denies that it is impracticable to bring all of the plaintiffs interested in the case in court, and denies for that reason that Salki is entitled to maintain this suit for himself and the other parties interested. He further denies that he is indebted to the plaintiffs in the sum of $200 or any other amount, but alleges that on or about Feb. 3, 1892, Sam Haller organized and was operating in Butte a tug of war tournament wherein certain prizes were offered, let and wagered and contested for by certain teams. Haller deposited in the hands of defendant, as stake holder, the sum of $200, which was two of the prizes offered on the result of the tug, being first and second prizes of $200 and $100 respectively, which were to be awarded according to the decision of the referee. On or about the date above mentioned a contest took place between the Italian team, of which Salki was captain, and the French team. To decide the contest, counting the answer, Thomas Fletcher was chosen as referee, and he awarded the $200 prize to the French team and gave an amount on the defendant for the amount, which was paid to Joseph Perrot, captain of the French team. The Italian team never presented the defendant with an order from the referee for any amount of the prize money, wherefore Frank asks the court for a judgment in his favor and for costs in the case.

An Injunction Issued.

A. G. Johnson today commenced injunction proceedings in the district court against John McIntyre. In his complaint Johnson says that for more than five years last past he has been in possession of the Rocky Bar placer mining claim, situated on the Summit Valley district, consisting of 20 acres on the divide between Yankee Doodle gulch and Hill Columbia gulch. On last Saturday the defendant jumped six acres of the ground on the south side, to the plaintiff's damage in the sum of $2,000. Not satisfied with jumping the ground, he cut a water ditch across a ditch belonging to the plaintiff, and through his reservoir, doing irreparable damage, and threatens to continue the damage, by diverting the water, belonging to the plaintiff, to the defendant's use. In solvment judgment for damages would be worthless, and he asked for an injunction, and a judgment for the ground, $500 damages and costs. An undertaking on attachment for $500 was filed and a temporary restraining order issued.

CONTRARY TO LAW.

City Officers Talk About the Coming Fair.

BUTTE, May 11.—Mayor Maule, City Marshal Small and Chief of Police Gray held a consultation this afternoon in regard to the course to be pursued by the officers restricting the glove contest which is announced to come off at the Conique on Friday evening between Dempsey and Gilden. Fred Ritchie had asked Marshal Small whether the contest was legal, and the marshal decided to talk with the mayor on the subject. The ordinances were searched and one was found, passed more than two years ago, to the effect that no prize fights should be allowed and no exhibitions of any kind, except under the auspices of an athletic club and in no case where an admission is charged. This ordinance was passed about two years ago, soon after an amateur had been killed in a prize fight at Crystal Springs.

After talking the matter over it was concluded to instruct the sparring that they could go ahead, provided it was an exhibition for points solely. No prize fight and no betting would be permitted.

"As far as I am individually concerned," said the mayor, "I wouldn't care if they knocked each other out. We saw a bird of a fight in Missoula. If men want to hammer each other, it's their own business and we can't permit it. If the contest comes off it must be with soft gloves."

The decision will be of interest as outlining the policy of the new administration in regard to sparring exhibitions. Before deciding on the matter, Judge McMurphy was called into consultation, and said that when Woods and Hall were arrested at the Conique for an exhibition of this kind, they were dismissed on motion of the city attorney, on the ground that there was no law against an exhibition of that sort. In regard to the admission fee charged to see the fight, it is claimed that regular admission is charged to the Conique and the charge is not for seeing the contest, but for admission to the Conique.

CINDERS IN THE AIR.

A Small Blaze of Discontent in Fire Department Circles.

BUTTE, May 11.—Things in the Butte city fire department are not quite as harmonious as they were before "Hannah died" or in other words before the recent annual election of officers. George Lapp, the defeated candidate for marshal, seems to think that he has been getting "the worst of it" ever since that time and he and his friends are beginning to feel indignant at the treatment which they say he is receiving at the hands of the department. The rupture was started at the first fire meeting after the inauguration of the new council when the president abruptly dismissed the committee on uniforms because it did not have a report to present. Mr. Lapp was chairman of this committee and had gone to considerable trouble to prepare a report which he would have presented had he not been unavoidably detained from the meeting. This made George a little uneasy under the collar, but he was warmer than ever last evening when he heard the report of the executive committee read and found that his name did not appear on a single one of the numerous committees appointed in connection with the coming state firemen's tournament. Mr. Lapp's friends, who are among the most influential and active members of the department, are also considerably worked up over the way he has been used, and one or two of them threaten to leave the department on this account. There are many reasons, they claim, why Lapp was entitled to an important place on at least one of these committees, but the president of the department claims that he is the fact that it was he who got together and trained the running team which carried off the state championship last year. Lapp has long been looked upon as one of the coolest and best men in the department.

THEY SAY IT ISN'T TRUE

Friends of Miss Brown Deny That She Was Married to Harry Holmes.

HER MAMMA WASN'T DOPED

More About That Sixteen-Year-Old Girl Who Wanted to Become a Wife—Conflicting Reports.

BUTTE, May 11.—Friends of Miss Brown, the young girl who eloped with Harry Holmes, the street car conductor, returned from Boulder today, and say that there will be no marriage between the couple at present. Maggie Brown is only 16 years old and her mother will not consent to the marriage. Mr. Brown went down to Boulder with the Holmes full of holes, but Holmes talked in such a straightforward and honest manner, expressing his readiness to do what was right, saying that he loved the girl and all he wanted was to marry her, that Brown became in a measure pacified and did not shoot him.

The friends of the girl deny that elopement or laudanum was given to Mrs. Brown except in the way of regular physician's prescription, and say that within an hour after the elopement Mrs. Brown was in the hotel office inquiring for her daughter. It is also denied emphatically that the couple were arrested when tied at the head of the bed, as reported by the contrary that on arriving in Helena, they went to the Occidental hotel. Holmes registered the name of Miss Brown, but did not register himself. Miss Brown went to her room and Holmes had breakfast sent up to her, but did not go to the room himself. He went to the city hall and tried to get a marriage license but before he succeeded was arrested. Officer Galvin asked him where the girl was and he wouldn't tell. He asked him if she was at the Occidental and he said she was not there. The officer searched the hotel and found Miss Brown sleeping in a rocking chair in her room.

"Are you the minister?" she asked.

"No, I am the officer," replied Mr. Galvin.

"She tried to flee then, but finally went with Mr. Galvin to his house and remained there the rest of the day and over night. Miss Brown's friends say that nothing will be done with Mr. Holmes."

The "Ivy Leaf."

BUTTE, May 11.—The Irish drama, the "Ivy Leaf," which is to be at Maguire's opera house, commencing Monday, with a Wednesday matinee, says the San Francisco Bulletin, speaking of the company when last seen in that city, attracted a good house last night. The story of the play is simple. Coline O'Brien, a pretty Irish girl, has two suitors, one who loves her for herself and one who is inspired by her fortune. The true lover makes an appointment with Coline, which is overheard, and the false one takes advantage of the situation to carry off the maiden and change the good young man with a having killed her. In the second act there is a series of special performances, consisting of a eute dance by a child, more or less musical performances on the Irish bagpipes, three or four touching Irish ballads, and a few songs of peace and happiness. The play affords a great variety of entertainment, and is quite likely to "catch on."

Storm Goods Which Would Test the Fury of a Cyclone.

When the Weather is Out of Joint.

We have an important special sale in preparation and we trust that you will watch this column for the particulars, which will appear in due time. In the meantime we will offer a number of exceptionally strong bargains in all of the different departments. We have selected several lines of pattern dress goods, which we will offer at $2.80, $4.95, $5.75, $12.50 and $15, all of which are much below the regular prices. The wealth at this writing suggests storm goods, of which we have a complete assortment. At $2 we offer an umbrella that is impervious to water and the strength of which would test the fury of a Kansas cyclone. We bought recently a large lot of umbrellas at much below regular values. It includes not only the particular quality above mentioned, but higher priced goods, all of which are correspondingly cheap. And this same purchase included a lot of Mackintoshes and gossamers for ladies; some of the latter are as low as $1.50 for a quality that has the touch of a kid glove. In Mackintoshes we have some of the finest goods that are made and in entirely new designs. For utility, comfort and appearance there is no substitute for a Mackintosh when the weather is out of joint. There has been a big cut here in ladies' and misses' jackets, the former at $2.95, $3.75 and $5.00 that can't be matched in town for less than 50 per cent. advance. At the first-named price a blue serge garment that you would not think high at $5.00. Misses' $6.00 jackets at $4.50, and a $5.00 garment for $3.00.

It is simply wonderful the progress that has been made in the manufacture of ladies' waists. By such progress we mean the increased number of designs and fabrics, a higher perfection as to fit and a marked reduction as to cost. We have waists at $1.00, $1.35 and $1.50 that as your dressmaker can make, and the fabrics are especially desirable. When you can buy such garments at such nominal prices, you can't afford the worry incident to having them made to order.
